

everytime and anywhere

words and music - victor kreider arrangement - the bbs lounge

I wrote this guitar part that was pretty tough for me at the time. I had some words and spent about a month trying to sing and play it together. On March 28th of 2000, I could finally get through the verse and bridge so it was time to finish it. I wrote the chorus to be a commitment to four things that He calls us to. This song was originally an intimate acoustic song, but I saw the potential for some pop culture.

(Psalm 119:33 and Psalm 119:44)

sorry, my music writing is stronger than my music theory.
proof that you don't need theory to worship God!
this is my feeble attempt at explaining this song.
relative to a capo on the second fret.

open up my eyes so i can see You clear out my mind so my thoughts are just of You oh Lord i want my thoughts to be of You right now i want my sight to be on You

G_6 D_2
so i will pray how You teach me to pray
 G_6 D_2
and i will learn what You want me to learn G_6 D_2
and i will serve where You call me to serve G_6 $G_6/F#$ G_6/E $G_6/F#$ C_2 and i will worship You alone every time and anywhere verse and bridge: picking pattern (5434)

 you could play these notes with one finger 2nd fret D string hammer on, 2nd fret D string, 2nd fret A string hammer on and 3rd fret A string
 a hammer on is when you press down your finger just after you pluck the string to make two sounds they're cool ☺

chorus: picking pattern for G₆ (6323) & D₂ (4323)
 you could play these notes with two fingers picking pattern for walk down on the last line: G₆ (6323), G₆/F# (6323), G₆/E (6323), G₆/F# (6323)
 and C₂ (5323)
